The name of Walla Walla High School is heard in educational circles more often and carries with it a greater amount of respect and influence than does any similar institution. The reason for this wide-spread fame is our form of Student Government, the success of which has been due in a large part to our motto, "If a thing is worth doing, do it with all your might." Student Government when concentrated individually means self-control; and when eleven hundred students start working upon their self-control, the result is the highest type of manhood and womanhood.

Mr. Jones came to Wa-Hi in 1914 and started Student Government two years later. He has appealed to the honor of the students and has obtained the desired results. Let us quote Mr. Jones himself: "The great value of Student Government is the moral gain. It is better for one student to do right by the exercise of his own judgment and self-control than for one hundred students to do right because compelled by authority to do so. In the first case will-power and character are developed, while in the second case, cowardice and subserviency are inculcated. * * *

"Citizenship can not be made by signing papers or by studying books; it must be lived. * * * Student cooperation in school government develops a high sense of responsibility regarding community affairs. It habituates those qualities of citizenship most highly desirable in a free democracy."

Do the students of Wa-Hi believe in Student Government? Absolutely!

FACULTY AT PLAY

A SCENE IN HADES

(Editor's Comment.)—In the small space on this page we have endeavored to bring out the meaning of Student Government to the faculty. While the serious-minded pedigogues are engaged in innocent pastimes, the judicial board administers terrible justice to "rule-breaking" students.

SENIORS

H.M CARSTENSEN

As we, the members of the class of 1921, look back over our four years in Walla Walla High School, we have just reason to be proud of our record. For the past three years most of the members of the basketball teams have come from our class. The quintet that goes out this year has put Walla Walla High School "on the map" by winning the Inland Empire and State Championships. At the Spokane tournament last year, the critics called a member of our team "the wizard at basketball." We also had the distinction of having five members of the debate team from our class and we unanimously won the interclass declamation contest.

This year we had a good representation on the debate team and again won the declamation contest. We are working hard in all the other interclass contests to win the shield as we did last year. The Senior class has put on a play more difficult and ambitious than anything before attempted by amateurs. "The Admirable Crichton," written by J. M. Barrie, the famous English dramatist, is very humorous and has an excellent plot.

The class of 1921 has always tried to uphold the ideals of Wa-Hi by supporting Student Government, by excelling in scholarship, and by taking an active part in interclass events.

JUNIORS

EDITH HUNTSMAN

The class of '22 has surely come out on top this year. With three juniors on the debate team, and one on the declamation, the class has been well represented in the oratorical line.

We have won, among other inter-class contests, the semester ticket selling contest, and attendance contest (to a debate), on the same day. The class has been exceptionally well represented on the honor rolls, as well.

The very novel idea of a carnival was presented by the junior class this year, and met with great success, paving the way for an entirely successful Prom. The girls' dress reform was another measure in which the juniors were of assistance. Many of the leading girls in the movement were members of the class of '22.

Listen—you members of other classes. Keep your eye on the senior class next year, and you will come to remember Mr. Jones's warning in the year of 1918-19, when he said, "Beware of this freshman class."

The sophomore class is composed of many of the boosters of Wa-Hi, and is working to put our school on top. In the same spirit are we working for our class. In athletics we won second place in girls' basketball, and third place in boys' basketball; we also won third in attendance at the debate, and first in the interclass music contest. Then will you give the sophomores some credit for the success of the Varsity ball? The class party was also one of the liveliest and most attractive of the social events of the year. The class as a whole has been trying to follow Mr. Jones' motto: "Anything that is worth doing, is worth doing well." With such a start as this while we are sophomores, what will we be when we become juniors? Beware, all ye other Wa-Hi people!

FRESHMEN

OPAL OWSLEY

The freshman class is not only the largest but also the "peppiest" class that has ever entered Wa-Hi. All the freshmen are full of pep and spirit and looking forward to their future years in Wa-Hi. Although we are only freshmen we have done many remarkable things. The boys of the class are the champion basketball and indoor baseball players of high school. The first semester the freshmen had fifty-three honor students. This was a larger percentage than the other classes had. But if you should happen to look in Secretary Meyer's book, you would perhaps see a long list of freshman names. A party was given December 22, and a dance was held early in the second semester. Both were a great success. At the beginning of school the dignified seniors were put in the balcony during assemblies but before long we were put there and have continued to stay there throughout the year.

We give all you other classes some advice; look out for the class of '24.

SENATE REPORT

The Senate has been Wa-Hi's foremost literary organization during the past year, the very cream and perfection of literary societies at the present, and the most promising organization of which Wa-Hi can boast in the future! Practically everyone of our meetings this year has been well attended. The banquet which we held at the beginning of the holiday season, and the joint initiation in which we cooperated with our sister societies, are two striking evidences of our virile activity. In our literary meetings, we have discussed such problems of vital interest as the Irish question, capital punishment, and national prohibition. By combining the House of Representatives and the former Senate into a united organization, we have secured an extraordinarily high standard of membership. Hence, there has resulted stimulus towards the greatest accomplishment, which has carried the Senate to the very peak of achievement.

EL ADREA REPORT

Ignoramus: And what is this El Adrea Society?

A Member: It is a society of young ladies in Wa-Hi who believe in enjoying life.

Ignoramus: Aha! and what are their meetings like?

A Member: Their meetings are enjoyable to the extreme for in their midst are many persons of talent; pianists without equal as players of master-pieces and jazz; soloists with flute-like tones; and actors and readers as well. The members open their spacious homes to receive the society and serve them with royal fare.

Ignoramus: Wonderous! and are these meetings all?

A Member: Nay, not so. They go en masse to the theater at times and dine in state at regal cafes. They dance and make merry and hike when the weather permits. They are also a literary society and have for their aim the advancement of literary standards among the girls.

Ignoramus: Well, it certainly seemeth to me that the aim of sweet lasses should be to join the El Adreas. If they don't they will miss lots of fun.

GIMMEL TETH REPORT

Denver, Colorado, April 20, 1941.

My Dear Selma:

Before I forget I must write and tell you of the wonderful dream I had the other night. I seemed to be back at the Walla Walla High School during the year 1920-21. You remember that was the year that the Gimmel Teths received the full benefit of enjoyment of youth, under your guidance as president.

In my visions the social events appeared so distinctly that I felt as if I were really living those few short months over again. The delightful Hallowe'en party, the incidents of the progressive dinner, the theater parties, both box and gallery, and the most enjoyable dance, were refreshed in my memory. The actors and actresses of our movie party were really more entertaining than in April, 1921, although I know you will think that an impossibility. Also there were the many other occasions of interest and merriment.

I fully hope that at some future date the society can have a reunion and discuss old times.

Yours for a happy future and for all of the Gimmel Teth Members.

(Signed) ANY GIMMEL TETH.

The Classical Club feels that it has had a most successful career, its aim being to give a worth-while play each year. This year, however, because of new rulings in the school, the club has not been allowed to give its annual play. In order to perpetuate old Roman customs the club gave a "Saturnalia" last fall. A "Saturnalia" corresponded to our Thanksgiving now and all the people gathered together in the village to give thanks to the gods. The high school gymnasium was gaily decorated in pastel shades of streamers and all members of the club were in Roman costumes. Melvin Rader as "High Priest" called together the people who marched in a circle with lighted candles as an invocation to the gods. After this, other ceremonies were carried out in imitation of olden days. This spring another novel party by the club consisted of everything from Greek dances and Roman playlets to a very modern moving picture show film entitled, "Friends, Romans and Leo." The club is planning big things for next year, which it hopes to make more successful than this has been.

We claim that the Wa-Hi Agricultural Club is the best club in the high school and that it is recognized by all other clubs as their superior in every respect. A stock judging contest was held at the State Fair at Yakima where we won highest honors for Walla Walla High School. A team was sent to the Western Royal Livestock Show at Spokane, where similar honors were won, a silver loving cup won at Yakima now being on display in the principal's office. We are not only known for our livestock judging but for our entertaining as well. The biggest social event of the year was the "Hayseed Ball" put on by this club and proclaimed by us to be the "biggest hit" of the year. There are about sixty members enrolled in the club. Two meetings are held each month and an interesting program is put on; after the program we always have some sort of refreshments. We invited the Milton Agricultural Club to our meeting April 7, at which everyone enjoyed a fine time. An interesting program was put on and several reels of motion pictures were shown. Besides this we had our usual "Feed." For the past years the club has gone by the name of "Hayseeds." We realized the necessity for a new name so we changed it to the Wa-Hi Agricultural Club, by which name we are to be known in the future.

This year El Circulo following a plan that proved to be the most successful ever tried, gave a party or a dance nearly every month. In this way enjoyable entertainment was provided for everyone. Throughout this year we carried on correspondence with some schools in South America and in appreciation they sent us pictures and letters describing their life and country. In this way the Spanish students have learned a great deal more than they could from the text books. But El Circulo has been successful in other ways than merely in the social ones. It has provided a medium for organization and cooperation. It has broadened our outlook and in doing this it has been true to our motto, "Success is measured by quality, not quantity." We attribute our wonderful success to the tireless endeavor of Mr. Cusicanqui and to the entire cooperation of every member and officer.

Nearly every American has a desire to go to France sometime and this desire is especially strong since the war. However, since few of us ever have the privilege of taking such a trip, the next best thing is to join the French Club and imagine that you are in France. Just attend some of our meetings and see if you don't feel unusually "Frenchy." Le Foyer Francais has been especially active this year along the social line. We have had several successful parties, the most enjoyable of which was probably the "Kid" party given at the home of Miss Helen Bailey, on March 30. Aside from good times we turn now and then to serious things. The French club is supporting five French orphans entirely on the money raised by the students. And we intend to have a more successful year next year. Come on and join us!

This year has been a successful one for the Seminars, because of the earnest efforts of each member. Every report has recorded a "well worth our while" task, accomplished. The sale of Blue and White ribbons at the football games showed our school spirit. Through our delegates we were active in the Conference, which was held here early in the year. Our meetings which have been interesting, have consisted of various entertainments in which every girl could participate. We backed dress reform and helped "put it across." Our main social event this year was a birthday watch-party, January 1, which was an enjoyable, and a well attended affair. This year our club will leave behind it a milestone marked by the success with which we wish to continue our work next year.

"What is the R. O. T. C. Club?" I hear a Frosh ask. The R. O. T. C. Club is a society composed of members of the R. O. T. C. military units who have formed the largest club in the school to further the interests of the military units and the school. It is the largest society in the school. "But what has this club ever done?" questions the little fellow. This is a very difficult question to answer because there have been so many different things which have been accomplished by the club.

Whenever there is a battalion parade, one can see the beautiful flag that is used. The R. O. T. C. Club made it possible to secure this flag by having a "tag sale" and in this manner secured enough money to buy the flag. They also helped secure money to purchase the battalion flag which is now being made, the design having been made by the art department. There is the shooting gallery which the club saw the need of and after much work secured. The little blue felt emblems on the shoulders of the boys were secured through the cooperation of the club.

After all these things have been explained to the freshman he says "Gee whiz! I want to join the R. O. T. C. so that I can belong to the club."

The W. W. Club is an organization whose purpose is to promote "pep" in any and all school activities and to give support to all worthy student enterprises. To recognize us look for the W. W. on our sweaters or if at a football game look also for the well-known paddle which is beyond doubt the best cure yet discovered for "peplessness." Not only do we take pride in our support of school activities but we have also put on one of the most successful dances of the year. The W. W. Club is growing. Watch us for even bigger things.

THE GLEE CLUB

This year the Glee Club is an exceedingly well-trained organization, having had three different instructors during the year. These three, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Wilcox and Miss Corcoran, are mainly responsible for its success. The club appeared in concert and assembly many times during the year, scoring decided successes. Most of the time has been devoted to part singing which has been well developed in both the boys' and girls' organizations. The Glee Club is an organization with a future. Watch us!

THE BAND

One of the organizations that has put Wa-Hi "on the map" is the band, an organization which is composed of musicians who are boosting the school to the fullest extent. Every member has a part to play and plays his part. The band is "in the game" from start to finish. This year the band has an enviable record. Playing at the beginning of the school year for Frontier Days, it has played for all military functions, for football and basketball games, for several assemblies, and has had some engagements entirely out of the line of school activities, such as the Elks' Minstrel parade, election night, and the dedication of the Pasco bridge. The band has not failed to play for any engagement because of too few turning out. In fact "failure" is the one word of which the band does not know the meaning. This success is due to three things: first, to the untiring efforts of our instructor, Mr. Tilley; second, to the fine support given by the student body and the R. O. T. C.; and third, to the enthusiasm of the members of the band themselves. The band is very fortunate in having for a cadet leader, William Locke, an overseas veteran, who served for two years in a regular army band, and who has a thorough understanding of all military functions and formations.

The personnel and instrumentation of the band is as follows: Cornets: Floyd Henline, Floyd Hawkins, Edward Evenson, Benson Smith, Leonard Tierney, James Morrison, Charles Gillette, Rudolph Meiners, Fred Schlee. Clarinets: William Locke, Howard Deye, Earl Neville, Harvey Stoller, Leighton Duckworth, Amzi Miller, Theodore Leudtke, Ross Rice, Marshall Allison. Horns: Merle Broxson, Albert Mayfield, Tom Bleakney, George Watts. Saxophones: William Plucker, Gerald Tierney, Arthur Anderson, Jack Davin, Lowell Richmond, Dorsey Truant, Jack McFeely, Eugene Curcio. Trombones: Louis Talcott, Dick Jones, Glen Simmons, Otto Anderson, Lou Weathers, Lyle Woodhall, Dan Leuthy. Baritones: Owen Dunning, Earl Evans, Clarence Strange, Elbert Barnes. Basses: Neil Jones, Clarence Deibel, Blair McConnell. Drums: Dean Richmond, John Shaughnessy, Roy Dorr, Jack Wright. Drum Major, Stephen Meyer.

THE ORCHESTRA

Owing to the re-organization of the orchestra no picture has been obtained. However, with a few exceptions the orchestra is represented in the band. Under the re-organization a new plan has been formed. This plan might be called the "first and second team" plan. The regular orchestra represents the "first team." The "second team" is a recruit orchestra, composed of beginners, playing elementary music. As soon as a member of the "second team" becomes competent he is promoted to the "first team." On the other hand, if a member of the first team begins to cut and neglect his work, he is transferred to the "second team." This is a much better plan than the old one, inasmuch as it keeps all members working and gives beginners an opportunity for orchestral training. The orchestra played in the concert, giving standard numbers, and also, for several other occasions. In future years Wa-Hi may expect to have the best high school orchestra in the Northwest. There is no reason why this should not happen. And it will!

"Champions of the state of Washington"—that is the hard earned title of our 1920 football eleven. Not satisfied with east-side honors, Wa-Hi met Vancouver, west-side champions, on Thanksgiving Day and walked off with the long end of the score, and consequently the claim to the state championship. The team received but one defeat during the season, but as this defeat came from an ineligible aggregation, our claim to the championship is in no way affected.

Our team played remarkably well at all times. Occasionally we were a little weak on the defense but in time of need our line held and received excellent support from the backfield.

On the offense our boys were invincible. Our backfield men were almost impossible to stop, getting away time after time for long gains. This speed on the offense, combined with skillful passing, accounted, to a great extent, for Wa-Hi's wonderful showing. Considering everything, we may look back on our 1920 football season as being one of the most successful that the school has ever had.

Prospects for 1921

From all indications the football material for 1921 will be anything but what the school could wish; however, one can never tell until school opens in the fall just what calibre of material there will be.

The loss of Roe, Corkrum, Childers, Rich, Rice, O'Rourke, Sitts, Jacky, and Captain Hughes leaves but few first team men to build around in making a team for another year.

Wa-Hi has grown to the place, however, when one need not fear that her teams will ever be weak, but will always be strong enough to furnish the keenest competition for all her rivals.

THE SECOND TEAM

Coach Lingrel is just closing a two years' stay with Walla Walla High School. During this time he has brought us one football and one basketball championship, and has won the good will and admiration of the boys as well. We all hope that he may spend another year with us.

Whatever Captain Hughes lacked in his ability to talk in assemblies, he supplied abundantly by "fighting to the finish" for his team. He was never known to quit but was always seen in action until the last whistle blew. Captain Hughes was perhaps the greatest and best liked captain that ever led a Wa-Hi team to victory.

Roe played a wonderful game at half and quarter. He had no specialty but could always be relied upon for an end run, line buck or punt and he has an enviable record at kicking goals after touchdowns. No doubt he is one of the best half backs Wa-Hi has ever had.

Pat, the big tall, lanky, Irishman, was always on the job. His tall body and long arms seemed to be everywhere in scrimmage. Pat leaves us too.

"Schnapps" at tackle proved to all his opponents that he was there "To do or die." He is not big, but hits like a ton of bricks in every play. He always had a hole for his half to go through. He would be a valuable man on any college team.

Denver proved to be a stone wall on defense. His immense amount of beef seemed to be always in the way of his opponents. He will be back next year. We can use him.

This was Rich's first year at football. He played end and with more experience he would be a valuable man on any high school team.

Albert Buffum had the hard job of waiting on our football team. Anyone who has undertaken this sort of work will agree with us that Albert deserves a vote of thanks.

What "Turk" lacked in stature he counterbalanced abundantly by his ability to carry the ball on line plunges. His defensive work was good to watch.

Talley was a new recruit into the Wa-Hi ranks. At fullback he was a stone wall on defense, and he excelled in the art of shooting the forward pass.

Davin played his usual steady game at end. He excelled in the art of getting down under punts and of nailing his opponents in their tracks.

Sitts was a "whale of a man" at tackle. He was always on the job, meeting the rushes of his opponents until they soon became illdisposed to hit his side of the line.

Bennett at quarter was full of snap and kept the team moving "machine like" at all times. Injuries in early season games kept him from proving his real worth to the team.

Childers proved himself a real football player in our Thanksgiving game with Vancouver. He would be a valuable man another year. We are sorry he must leave us.

Rice held down the pivot position in every game last season. He was a hard, earnest worker, a hard fighter and passed the ball with care and accuracy. He was a hard man to get through.

Paul Reed, our yell leader, is an overworked person who gets little credit for what he does. For this reason the student body takes advantage of these columns to thank him for his good work.

In looking back over the 1921 basketball season every Wa-Hi student has a right to feel proud. At all times both at home and abroad our team brought great credit upon itself as well as upon the school.

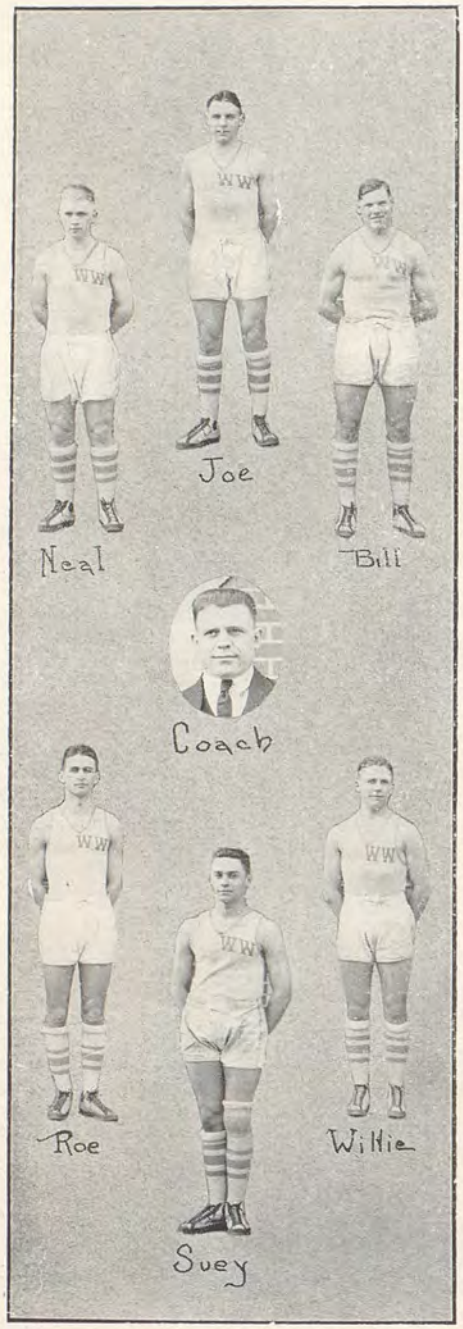
The team was defeated once by Prescott early in the season but later retrieved this defeat by overwhelming the rival team in a return game. After winning the undisputed right to claim the championship of Southeastern Washington, our team was invited to attend the Inland Empire Tournament held at Spokane. Our boys accepted and after winning two hard fought games met Yakima in the semi-finals. Yakima won in a whirlwind finish by a score of 29 to 25, thereby putting Wa-Hi out of the running.

Although we cannot claim a state championship for Wa-Hi, we can be proud of our team which always showed great speed, excellent team work and good coaching. Accurate passing and shooting and close guarding has gone a long way toward establishing our splendid record.

The student body of Wa-Hi certainly owes a vote of thanks to the seniors on our 1921 basketball "five," who have been mainstays of the team for the last three years, and who have more than done their share in bringing the school to the front.

Spring Athletics

For several years prior to 1921 Wa-Hi has not had a baseball team but this year, owing to increased sentiment among the boys in favor of baseball, a team has been organized and entered in the local Twilight League, but too late to have their pictures included in this book. Track has been given up entirely in order that we may devote our entire interest to America's national game. At the present time the boys have won two games and lost one and have good prospects for another Wa-Hi championship. Those who have received suits are: O'Rourke, Parris, Wright, Harmon, Yenney, Turnbow, Rice, Bleakney, Nelson, and Mortimer.



Captain J. Chandler has played three years on the Wa-Hi basketball team at forward. He has played in practically every game in the three years and always proves to be a big element in the offensive work of the team. Joe has been twice selected as an "All State" forward, which is due him. Perhaps a faster and a better dribbler was never seen on any high school team.

N. Turnbow, another three-year man has often drawn comments from the spectators by his long shots and his bursts of speed in getting under the basket. Neal was steady at all times and while he did not show up as well in the scoring end of the game, he was in a large part responsible for the low score of the opponents.

W. Chandler has also played three years on Wa-Hi's team. Bill and Joe together on a team make a pair unequalled. No doubt Bill was the cleverest all-round floor man in the whole Northwest with no exceptions. He knows the game in every detail, from the standpoint of a player. He has a keen eye for the basket and is a powerful man at defense.

Coach Lingrel has been in a large measure responsible for the success of our basketball teams for the last two years. He has worked hard for the teams here and has produced two of the best aggregations that Wa-Hi has ever had.

M. Roe was, as during the previous year, a steady, dependable man at guard. He was somewhat handicapped this year on account of sickness. He was fast and with his long reach it was hard for an opponent to get near the basket with the ball. Maurice has played two years.

C. Yenney proved to be a very good man at center, and lived up to the prediction of every one. He proved himself a floor man through his ease in passing and receiving the ball. He was fast with a long reach and while his shooting eye was not so accurate, he could always be counted upon for a basket or two. He pulled the North Central game out of the fire in the last minute of play by a long shot from the middle of the floor.

W. Zeller played his usual steady ball all during the season. Bill could always be counted on. Everyone knew he was doing his best by putting forth all his efforts. Bill played forward and guard. His best playing of the year was in the Prescott game at Wa-Hi, when he caged four long shots from beyond the center of the floor.

L. Green was another forward who showed his ability as a basketball player at many of the games. He has an enviable ability to get the ball through the basket while being closely guarded near the basket. It is too bad that his opposition was so strong that he was kept on the sick list much of the season. He also graduates this year.

Girls' Basketball

Athletics among the girls have advanced so that they play a much more important part in securing and in maintaining health. Since gymnasium has become compulsory for the girls in our school, many more turn out for the games; as a result contests are much more interesting and exciting. Basketball, especially, attracted a great deal of attention and all of the games were hard fought, the seniors carrying off the honors. We have had many new ideas introduced into our gymnasium work that make it especially interesting. The tournaments and the point winning and letter winning contests have created interest for girls who have never taken an active interest in athletics before this year.

Miss STEERE, Coach

For the second time in two consecutive years Wa-Hi has won the annual declamation contest from North Central High School of Spokane.

The humorous and dramatic sections of the high school team were the victors this time and although the team lost the decision in the oratorical class, the work of the team as a whole has shown the result of careful training on the part of our coach, Miss Bessie Steere.

Miss Steere has been the coach of our declamation team for two years. During these two years the interest in declamation has rapidly increased, until when the tryout was held this spring over fifty entrants were listed for the first contest. Our coach has given a winning team for the first time in many contests, and we are sorry she will not be with Wa-Hi next year.

THE SENIOR PLAY CAST

"The Admirable Crichton," a play with lines and action so funny that the senior class which put on the play often had to stop the play in the rehearsals because the actors and actresses could not keep from laughing when they practiced their parts, held the attention of the mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, and "near brothers" of every student of Wa-Hi in the auditorium on the evening of June the third. Two acts of the play took place on a desert island where an English peer, his family and servants had been wrecked. The island was very real even to the wild animals and a snake that certainly looked real. The scenery for these island scenes was made by Norman Kelly, a member of the Senior Play Cast. The scenery was clever, the actors at ease, and the lines learned perfectly. The interpretation of the play was altogether delightful and realistic. The costumes accentuated the beauty of the actresses who comprised some of the prettiest girls in school. The success of the play was due to the skillful work and coaching of Miss Bessie Steere and Mrs. Hazel Teall.

This is the first year that a credit has been given to the students who take part in the senior play. It was thought that in all cases a credit was really earned as much time is always spent on the play by those who participate in its production. The seventh period was set aside for the play and every one in the Senior Play Cast earned a credit.

Question: "Resolved that, as a prerequisite to the right to strike or lock out, employers and employees should be compelled to submit industrial disputes to arbitration."

Three months of research, three months of grilling study, and then during only twenty minutes of speaking, comes the time of the supreme test of a debater. Only a debater knows the thrill and intensity of those critical moments. Many debaters have lost control under the stress of the final hour. That Wa-Hi has been represented by debaters who do not lose themselves under trying conditions is the proof of the quality of her debating material.

THE TEAMS

The affirmative was represented upon the platform by Clark Robinson and Melvin Rader. In the debate at Yakima, Clark was confronted by an emergency which could only be faced with courage and self-control. It is substantially to the credit of Clark that he met a difficult situation with all of the skill of an expert debater. In the debate at Walla Walla he likewise accredited himself well. This was the third season that Melvin has appeared on the debate platform, so from the standpoint of training as well as ability, he was prepared to cope with his adversaries. This is Melvin's last year in Wa-Hi, and it can be truthfully said that he deserves as much credit as any speaker who has ever represented Wa-Hi on the debate platform.

The negative has an especially formidable combination in John Thomas and Brents Stirling. John possessed a better delivery than any other of the speakers, and also displayed unusual force and persuasiveness. That Brents fought hard and well no one can doubt who attended the Yakima debate. However, it was only at Bellingham that he arose to his full powers. Excelling in rebuttal speeches, Brents was a formidable opponent for any team.

The debate alternates, Fred Amery, Lloyd Berry and Virgil Smith, deserve as much credit as any members of the Seminar. It takes devotion of a very genuine sort which will prompt a student to work untiringly when he knows that he has very small chance of speaking in a debate. These boys have been faithful at all times.

THE COACH

The coach, Mr. Henry Thorsett, has given unfalteringly of his time and effort to help the debaters. His contribution to the final victories has been of a very substantial nature.

THE SEASON

Wa-Hi won three out of four debates, and very closely contested the decision which was lost. Our adversaries—Yakima and Bellingham—are now thoroughly convinced of the debating ability of Wa-Hi's representatives.

Nearly every school has a publication issued regularly throughout the year to display literary and artistic talent, to chronicle student activities, to allow an opportunity for student expression, and to represent the school among other institutions through exchanges. The Eh Kah Nam seeks to attain these ends in Wa-Hi. Throughout the year the members of her staff have worked for the attainment of an ideal paper. A standardized cover has been designed and adopted; the closest cooperation of members of the staff has been secured. Most important, however, is the support given by the members of the student body at large. The contribution of an abundance of material by the students has been an important factor in the development of the Eh Kah Nam. As a representative of the school the Eh Kah Nam travels far and wide. There are about eighty copies mailed out each issue as exchanges which go to every part of the United States and even to Alaska. Through the Eh Kah Nam, other schools are able to come into intimate touch with Wa-Hi. They of course hear of her but it is only through the school publication that they are able to study her ideals, activities, and progress. Those who are favored with the opportunity of assisting in the publication of the Eh Kah Nam receive some splendid training. After all much of the value of any work or study is the experience received. Whatever has been the success and achievement of the staff for the year 1920-1921, we look forward to a most successful Eh Kah Nam in 1921-1922.

Faculty Advisor: Miss LANE

It is with a feeling of pride and gratification that we, the staff of the 1921 "Royal Blue," present this volume to the student body.

Pride, because we feel that every effort has been expended by the individual members of the staff in publishing an annual which will be worth while, and which will also be a source of enjoyment and pleasant recollections to its readers in after life.

Gratification is the one word by which we can voice our sentiments to the student body, who have so splendidly responded in cooperating with the staff in an effort to increase the circulation of the annual.

The advertisers in the Royal Blue are deserving of no less credit than the full support of its readers in carrying on their business.

The responsibility for the success of the present and past publications of the Royal Blue has rested with Miss Martha G. Lane, the staff's faculty advisor. We wish at this time to express an acknowledgment on behalf of the student body to Miss Lane for her splendid help and advice in making this publication possible.

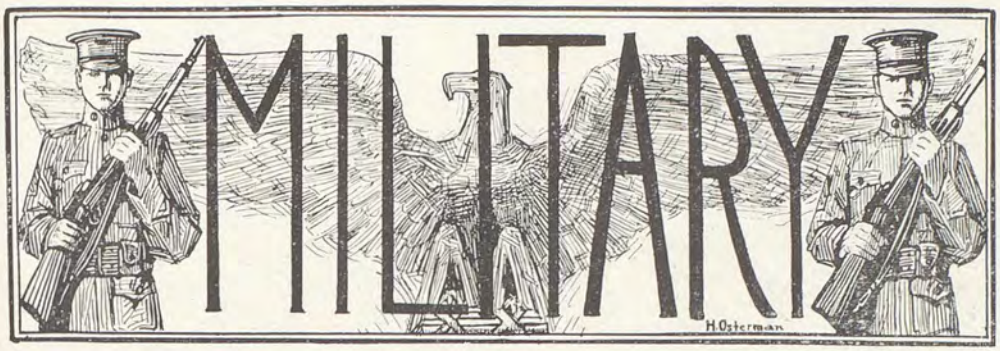
MANUFACTURERS OF WA-HI FAME



This year under the capable leadership of Major J. M. Holmes the military unit has made rapid progress. Our work has been better organized and carried out to a fuller extent than in the previous years.

Every man has been supplied with a full uniform, and other necessary equipment has been added which has been lacking in other years.

The fact that we have a large enrollment is another reason why we are successful. No unit can be successful without sufficient men. This year we have had a three-company battalion but it is expected that there will be a four-company battalion organized soon for the coming year.

For the first time, this year we have had gallery rifle practice. The ten best men of the battalion were chosen to represent this unit against other units of the Ninth Corps Area, and although we did not win, we stood far from the end. Considering the fact that practically no preparation had been made, and that we were still ahead of some of the senior units, we made a creditable showing.

This year a large percentage of boys have signed up to attend summer camp at Camp Lewis. Besides gaining a splendid vacation, after attending two summer camps and completing two years of military training in a junior unit, any cadet may take the examination for a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States Army.

Boys who attended summer camp the past two years set up a high standard for which old Wa-Hi is famous. Our boys this year will maintain that standard and we hope to better our R. O. T. C. each year.

"TIN SOLDIERS"

SCHOOL LIFE

BY THE WAY

TO THE READER:

The following material is not all editorials from the serious mind of the editor; we have endeavored to crowd into this space designated for editorials, contributions from various sources which would otherwise find no place in the book.

OUR POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

The first two months of the school year were perhaps the most lively and interesting part of the year. As soon as school was started the civics classes were organized into two parties with Melvin Rader as chairman for the Democrats and Ivan Meyer for the Republicans. From then on until Nov. 2 political assemblies were held every Friday, the sides speaking alternately. Discussions although hot were free from personal remarks, and were a means of finding the oratorical ability of the school.

Throughout the campaign the sentiment was Republican, and even the Democrats knew they could not carry the votes, but considering that the votes stood 5 to 2, the high school was more democratic than the nation.

Probably the most good of the campaign resulted from the balloting. At a slight expense regulation ballots were obtained and each student was instructed how to vote. This furnished valuable training in citizenship for although the campaign will fade from our memories, the ability to vote correctly will not.

A FIELD FOR GREATER EDUCATION

A great educational feature has been added to Wa-Hi in our moving picture machine. Although most of the older generation have failed to realize the prominent position motion pictures are beginning to have on our whole educational system, leading educators throughout the country begin to see a new era dawning for an improvement in this line.

We have not been backward in adopting new methods in Wa-Hi. The educational weeklies shown every Wednesday in the auditorium have become a real part of our school routine, and although the students have not been required to give an oral or written report on the two reels shown every week most of us have obtained a valuable education along many lines of commercial and industrial work

Since the school board at this time has deemed it inadvisable to show the film during regular class periods, our educational weeklies are at present shown nearly every Wednesday noon between 12:25 and 1:00. We do not criticize the school board for their action, but hope that in time the citizens of Walla Walla will come to realize the actual value of educational films. Let us hope that as time goes by and the demand for educational pictures increases, the general class of motion pictures will gradually change for the better. Film corporations may come to realize that what the people desire is something which will instruct as well as entertain.

A NATIONAL STEP TO BETTER OUR ENGLISH

Though many of our high school students have failed to take it seriously a wonderful step has been taken toward improving the English language. Good English week has become an annual occurrence in Walla Walla High School, and many other institutions throughout the United States are beginning to take up seriously the problem of keeping the English language pure and without blemish and of abolishing improperly constructed sentences, slang phrases and words which really should have no place in one's vocabulary. Good English week is made popular by the talks of outside speakers on appropriate subjects, by a program put on in assembly by the expression classes and by numerous posters put up about the building.

Let us support the "Good English movement," for it has an object which is worth while, and will serve as a means of improving the English language instead of allowing it to be degraded by the faults mentioned above.

A SOURCE OF WA-HI'S FAME

Student Government has been maintained this year despite the lack of interest the underclassmen have displayed. The fame of Walla Walla High School continues to be spread throughout the United States, by individuals who have seen the successful working of our student control system.

A small booklet has been published to acquaint the high school with the rules and regulations which the associated students have laid down. This pamphlet will serve to meet the demand for a written constitution, a demand which has been in evidence among those who have been interested in the machinery employed in conducting our student government.

Let us always bear in mind the theory of Mr. Jones that student government is not maintained by written constitutions, and by numerous rules and regulations, but by the spirit of the student who has a desire to show with what degree of success self-control can be obtained by boys and girls.

WALLA WALLA HIGH SCHOOL

THE GIRLS SUPPORT WA-HI

During the three years that the Y. W. C. A. has had a club in Wa-Hi, it has never had such an enthusiastic and successful year as 1920-1921. With a membership of over two hundred girls, the club has accomplished a great deal. Among our various activities, we made Christmas a very happy time for seventy poor children with a Christmas tree and gifts; the club played a large part in the Girls' Conference which was held in December; and many teachers and students have been accommodated with noon lunches sold in Study A. These and other achievements will be surmounted, however, by the wonderful Seabeck Conference in June where we will be represented by twenty girls. The Pep-iz-its, the club for freshmen girls has also had a very prosperous year, many peppy meetings being held, both social and business. These girls will, next year, be live wires for the Aa Ca Wa Ya Club, and will be experienced in social recreation. The Pep-iz-its will also be represented at Seabeck this summer.

A CONTEMPLATED IMPROVEMENT

The need of a new gymnasium to accommodate the growth of the high school is one of the problems with which the school board will be confronted in the future. During the past basketball season hundreds have been turned away from games because of the crowded condition of our gymnasium, and its poor seating facilities. The growth of the high school has been so great in the past few years that the students attending the basketball games take up practically all of the seating capacity, and outsiders who are interested in our activities must needs be turned away.

The state law compelling all high school girls to take physical training has been repealed, but this does not eliminate the necessity of a girl's department in the gymnasium and of more adequate accommodations for the girls than we now have. Some girls will continue to be interested in different divisions of the girl's gymnasium work and their physical education demands at least a part of the consideration that the boys are given. A swimming pool and all of the modern gymnasium facilities are lacking in our present gymnasium, and we have no room to install them even if the school board deemed it advisable. The R. O. T. C. unit has demonstrated its need for inside accommodations during the winter months. A lecture room and a shooting gallery would add greatly to the importance of our unit and would serve to keep alive the spirit of the R. O. T. C. during the winter months.

Mr. Jones has suggested a plan that will not only provide the school with a new gymnasium but will also meet the demand for an industrial building. With the construction of a new gymnasium to suit the needs of the school the old building could be fitted into a suitable industrial arts plant.

The school year is almost finished, but let us support the movement on foot for a new gymnasium. Eventually, there must be an enlargement of our educational plant. Our school is becoming crowded and with the entrance of a new class into high school this fall we will realize more than ever before the need for more class rooms as well as for a larger gymnasium.

A COMMUNITY ADVANTAGE

The Annual Lyceum Course put on by the student body has become one of the features of high school life in Walla Walla. The course put on during the past school year has been a wonderful example of what Wa-Hi can do in the way of bringing talented musicians and lecturers to this city. Beginning in 1916 with a course valued at $1600 we have increased the quality of production, until this year the course put on totaled an expenditure of more than double the first series of entertainments that marked the beginning of a high school Artists' Course here.

The Artists' Course is growing rapidly. The people of Walla Walla have come to realize the value of such an enterprise in the community and have taken a deep interest in the entertainments the high school has brought here. In the near future the need for larger seating accommodations will be brought to the attention of the supporters of the Lyceum Course and it will then no longer be a question of "first come, first served" but everyone will have an opportunity to see and hear the greatest musicians and lecturers in America.

DRESS REFORM IN WA-HI

Are we proud of our student government and our dress reform? Indeed we are, because Wa-Hi's motto is: "If a thing is worth doing, it is worth doing with all our might." Dress reform is an outgrowth of student government. It is an effort of a majority of the girls to simplify their dress, by eliminating expensive clothing. In a girls' assembly held in the early spring all expensive and inappropriate clothing for school wear, extreme hair dress, and the use of cosmetics, were voted to be unbecoming to a high school girl. But alas! There are always a few who hate to obey; so the president of each girls' society and a representative from each class meet once a week to punish the offenders according to the offense.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF WALLA WALLA HIGH SCHOOL

As you pass "from the life of school to the school of life," we, the alumni, stand waiting to welcome you into our midst. We extend to you the heartiest congratulations and the sincerest wishes for your future success. What a wonderful time you people have had at old Wa-Hi—the games, the social affairs, the concerts and the contests. What better way is there of living over again those delightful times than by getting together at the alumni gathering? Commencement week with Baccalaureate sermon, class play and graduation are made complete only by the alumni banquet. It is a great feeling to have accomplished something and really to have completed it in the best way. Since you have accomplished so much by becoming graduates of Wa-Hi, finish the good work by becoming active members of the Alumni Association. Not only do the alumni meet at the annual banquet for reminiscences but there is the holiday gathering, and last but not least, the alumni assembly when we are privileged to go back to our beloved Wa-Hi and feel as though we were one of the students again. You've acquired high ideals—carry them out wherever you go and be true alumni of Walla Walla High School.

ALUMNI ASSEMBLY—DEC., 1920

THE FOUNDATION OF WA-HI

It is seldom that a school can boast of a principal with the caliber of Mr. Jones. Though many of the citizens of Walla Walla fail to realize the fact, the high school today is what it is only through the personal efforts of the present principal. Not until he received an offer of a salary considerably more than he was being paid here, did the school board take immediate action in an effort to retain the power which has been such a determining factor in the lives of hundreds of boys and girls who have gone to high school under his administration. It is useless to tell of the many improvements in Walla Walla High School under the capable leadership of Mr. Jones. He cannot be with the high school always, however; let us realize this fact. A man of his capacity has a larger field before him; he must have a greater area over which to exert his influence.

The opportunity is coming to Mr. Jones sometime in the near future, and when it does, the principal who has seen classes graduate from this school for so many years, will leave us. His personality will no longer dominate Walla Walla High School, but his influence over the days of his high school friends will always remain in their minds and will be made part of the lives of a great number of the future citizens of our country.

THE GIRLS' VOCATIONAL CONFERENCE

The year 1920-21 included three days very interesting and beneficial for the girls of this district, which includes Walla Walla and the surrounding towns, Athena, Attalia, Burbank, Dayton, Dixie, Freewater, Milton, Pendleton, Pomeroy, Prescott, Touchet, Umapine, Waitsburg and Weston.

At the sessions of the vocational conference presided over by girls of Wa-Hi, among the addresses given were those by Miss Anna Knott, Mrs. Henrietta Baker Kennedy, Mrs. W. M. Kern and Mr. H. W. Jones. Representatives from numerous western and eastern colleges discussed the merits of each institution and explained the displays. This discussion proved to be very enjoyable as well as beneficial in helping the girls decide on a vocation and a college. The tea at Langdon Hall given by the girls of Whitman College and the luncheon at the Congregational Church will both be remembered as very delightful occasions.

The conference proved to be such an enjoyment and benefit to the girls that it is hoped that it may be made a feature of each year.

THE OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

It is said that the test of a good book is the length of time it is remembered. In the same way, the importance of any event in a boy's high school career might be accurately determined by the power it wields over the memory of the student. Judged by this standard, the Older Boys' Conference was, beyond doubt, the most out-standing event of the entire school year. Time will sweep on; school events will fade from our memories; but we who were delegates at the conference will oftentimes vividly recall those precious conference days, even in the very far distant, unseen future.

Wa-Hi came to the front in the conference as might be expected. At the first business meeting of the delegates the conference unanimously elected Melvin Rader of Walla Walla, president. Melvin is one of our graduating seniors, and has been one of the most active participants in any movement on foot for the general good of the school. The delegates at the conference will assure you that, without a doubt, one of the determining factors back of the success of the conference was the support and work put forth by the president.

INTERCLASS COMPETITION

Good sportsmanship is a quality which is difficult to secure but which every school is eager to obtain. The interscholastic activities, as basketball and football, require only a limited number of contestants, excluding many who would take part; on the other hand the different interclass events may involve entire classes. These various contests include boys' athletics, girls' athletics, declamation, ticket selling and scholarship. For seven years the school has awarded the class receiving the highest number of points a shield as a trophy. The shield with the year of the winning class engraved upon it is hung in the main hall of the school.

Last year the juniors by hard work won the shield and this year the competition is even stronger. At the present time—about the middle of May—the classes stand as follows: juniors, sophomores, seniors, freshmen, with only seventeen points difference between the highest and the lowest. The classes are all working hard and everyone is waiting anxiously to hear which class, on the last day of school, will be announced as the winner of the shield.

AN APPRECIATION

We are exceedingly fortunate in having the support of a group of business men of this city organized as the Rotary Club. Most of us realize the extent to which the high school is indebted to the Rotary Club, but we have failed to show the members of the organization the full appreciation that is due their splendid efforts on behalf of the high school and its activities. When, in the football season, Wa-Hi was battling for supremacy of the gridiron, a delegation of Rotarians was always on hand to give their support to the boys who wore the blue and white. All of us who attended the Boys' Conference remember the wonderful banquet given the delegates by Walla Walla's Rotary Club. In fact, any and all enterprises which have served to aid the high school in any way have received the full support and backing of the Rotary Club. Let us not remain unappreciative of their efforts. Fellow students, the Rotary Club members are back of us; let us boost for them, that we may continue to have the confidence of a group of men, who have faith in the student body of their high school.

DON'TS FOR FRESHMEN

1. Don't get the idea that because Bill Zeller is president of the student body he owns this high school.

2. Don't cut more than three times, or O-U-T you go.

3. Don't forget to read your text books once in a while; they may help you out in examinations.

4. Don't study too long, you may get brain fever.

Lloyd B.—"Say, where do all the bugs go in winter?"
John T.—"Search me!"

SEPTEMBER

7. School starts. All we see is freshmen.
8. Freshmen are given annual instructions in assembly.
10. We start the eternal grind.
11. Mr. Jones cracks annual joke about the deaf and dumb man.
15. A grand rush for football suits.
16. Oswald Olson renders us a selection.
17. The "upper class" girls meet their "little sisters" at a party in the gymnasium.
18. Governor Harding of Iowa, a Republican, makes many friends at Wa-Hi.
19. A political fight is on. Democrats and Republicans debate.
22. Judicial Board members make speeches.
23. Class meetings. Juniors elect ye ed-in-chief and "Ossifers," of Royal Blue.
28. Can't get away from Eh Kah Nam assembly.
30. Bick "steps" with Ada for the first time.

OCTOBER

1. Another political assembly. Martha S. makes herself known.
5. Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra as part of our Lyceum.
6. Mr. Jones says some boys are skirt-hangers; then are the girls coat-hangers?
8. Our first football game. Colfax is the first of our string of victories.
10. Battalion drill. "Ain't they hansum?"
15. By the way, we beat Pasco.
16. Senators eat cider and doughnuts.
18. Republicans "slam" the Democrats again.
20. Mary Pickford in "Johanna Enlists."
21. Our band plays in assembly. Are we proud of our band? Yea bo!

Wanted: A Man—must be tall, handsome, have curly hair and be able to dance well—By Every Girl in High School.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

The face powder used by Marvel McRae in one week will whitewash a fence two miles long, and five feet high?

The poor dancers in this high school if put together would reach from here to Dixie?

If the good dancers were all put in a Ford there would be several good seats left?

The Gimmel Teth and El Adrea girls are not as bad as they are painted?

She sure picks lemons!

NOVEMBER

1. The Gimmel Teths go to a picture show.
4. Another hot dog sale; if this keeps up we'll all be dogs!
6. El Adreas have dinner party.
10. Our faculty "masks." Can you imagine it?
12. Lewis and Clark at Spokane beat us by one point.
13. "Hank" Hoon, Amzi Miller, and A. Weathers on the stage.
14. We start Student Government in study halls.
16. Alden Chard reads in assembly, "The Evils of Gambling."
17. A feature picture "The Tale of Two Cities." We lose some more valuable (?) study.
19. Mrs. Kelly lectures on Japan.
20. Expression classes give Red Cross assembly.
25. Turkey Day gone. We are champions of state. Sophs give dance to celebrate.

27-29. Teachers' Institute.

30. Naturally the girls win the stamp contest.

DECEMBER

4-6. Football Banquet. Girls' Vocational Conference. Girls from all over the state. Oh, Boy!

10. Stefansson lectures on "My Ten Years in the Arctic." It must have been chilly.

11. Fords every week. We learn about pens, candy, gum, and cities. We're getting real "eddicated."

12. Gimmel Teths' progressive dinner.

15. Senate debate—"Resolved, that Tanlac is more nutritious than milk."

18. Senior Varsity Ball.

19. Didn't it make you almost weep to hear Hilda Mc and Ada B. appeal for money for the Relief Fund?

22. Alumni Assembly. Are you a "human cow?"

23, 24, etc. Christmas Vacation. We all take a much needed rest. Maybe?

WISE SAYINGS

Some people claim that hunting after studies is like hunting after fleas; the more you hunt them the more they flee.

Love is said to be blind but I know some fellows in love who can see twice as much in their gals as I can.

The only difference vacation makes to some students is that they loaf all the time instead of nearly all the time.

Ivan M.—"Isn't this a nice dance floor?"
Esther C.—"Well, then, get off my feet and dance on it."

JANUARY

3. Again we start the eternal grind.
4. Air resounds with crash of broken resolutions.
5. We raise the roof yelling for Pendleton game.
10. Slides showing life in France. Harry, you're altogether too cute.
12. Our Christmas jewelry begins to turn green.
14. Pomeroy players on the stage.
15. De Mille Quartet. "Fat" Struthers' first date w.th Harold.
20. The freshmen's first party. Call for the Valley Dairy!
22. The Juniors try themselves at the show business. Regular Jews, I'd say.
23. Senate Banquet. Melvin is embarrassed beyond all words. Imagine a doll!
25. Clark Robinson speaks to a girl!
31. Second semester begins.

FEBRUARY

4. Our boys play Waitsburg and get a "feed" afterward. Did Bill Chandler meet enuf girls for once?
7. We seem to have "sticky fingered" people around here.
11. Jolly juniors jaunt a "jitney" for the jays from Waitsburg.
12. New York Chamber Music Society. (Part of our Lyceum.)
14. Sophs have party. Masquerade and cider n'doughnuts.
18. A patriotic assembly. The expression classes and our band show off again.
21. Did anybody say "yellow slip?"
22. George Washington comes to the rescue with a holiday.
23. Mr. Bulgin the "evangelist" speaks on "guns."
25. Mr. Piccoli has our favorite "pet," the bull dog, for a sleepy audience.
28. No more Ford Weeklies in school time!

CALENDAR

WISE SAYINGS

A young lady should not make love before 20. That is entirely too large an audience.

Never pay $5 for a handkerchief. That's too much to blow in.

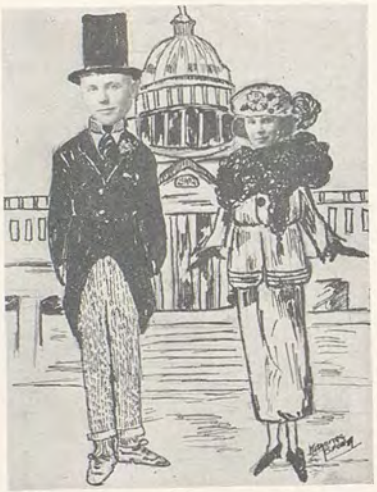
To avoid falling hair: Step out of the way when you see it coming.

—x—

DON'TS FOR JUNIORS

Don't feel bad if she turns down your prom bid for the other fellow. He probably feels as bad about it as you do.

Don't try to tell Miss Blynn all you know. She probably knows a few things.



Bill Z.—"I'm going to be president."
Elizabeth C.—"I'm going to be the president's wife."

MARCH

1. Comes in like a lion.
3. Senate and Gimmel Teth and El Adrea "inishiashun."
4. Girls start dress reform. Good-bye, silk sox, fancy garters and rats.
6. Battalion drill once more.
7. We've discovered that our girls actually have ears, after dress reform.
9. The world is coming to an end. It snows in March.
11. Dr. Payne lectures on "Beautiful Hawaii."
13. Seniors and Juniors fight for first place in Declamation. Seniors come out on top.
16. We get "shot" for the Annual. "Look pleasant, please."
17. St. Patrick's Day. Everybody wears green.
20. Girls' gym track meet. The girls are growing graceful. (?)
31. Goes out like a lion! We are "vacationing" now.

APRIL

5. Spring fever is rampant.

8-9-10. Older Boys' Conference. Melvin at the front as president.

11. Ben Smith tells the joke about "saying too much already." It does not take so well the second time.

12. Interclass music contest. Our musicians make themselves known. Sophs win.

14-17. Girls becoming athletic play townball.

20. Mr. Winship lectures to us about graduating from high school.

21. Interclass baseball games begin.

25. Our Annual staff representatives make speeches in assembly. Did you sign for your Annual?

30. Junior Prom. Did you get a balloon?

EDITORIAL

Sure, we admit it. We don't care who knocks or kicks, we got all this material in the garbage can, and since the activities of the Freshman class resemble the accomplishments of the first semester of military, and since the Freshmen are "The Cream of the School (?)," have we not the right to go to the trash barrel for material and bunk? We don't care for YOUR opinion; therefore don't give it. We don't and won't apoligize for anything in the following pages. If you are hot-headed, self-conceited, if you have a solid piece of wood for a head and if you lose your temper easily, DON'T READ ANY FARTHER. But if you are tired of reading the deep stuff in the BY THE WAY and weary of beholding your own Physiognomies and Ditto of others, then WE RECOMMEND that you read farther and relieve that nerve-racked, never-of-any-use-mind and brain of yours.

BANK FAILS AT ATTALIA

Terrible Tragedy—President Commits Suicide.

Attalia, June 10, 1946. (By Cider Press.)—The Attalia Bank, which has operated here for the last six weeks, closed its doors this morning.

The remains of Mr. H. King were found on the banks of an irrigation ditch by John Langdon.

The reason for the failure is not known for sure but it is believed that when Mr. H. Hart withdrew his account of $25,000,000, the bank's capital was removed so that the bank could not meet the demands of its depositors. This is the first time in the history of the bank that such a thing has happened.

President Harold King to save himself from disgrace committed suicide by jumping into an irrigation ditch. His funeral will be held Saturday afternoon. His only heir, a nephew, who lives in Prescott, will receive Mr. King's entire estate consisting of a chicken coop and a rat trap.

It is rumored that there is a hidden reason for this tragedy. Some one said that he was disappointed in love. To obtain further information on this, ask the young actress whose first picture is to appear at the American this week (see next page.)

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON ABROAD

Mrs. Pat Meyer Lands in Wallula.

Noted Society Favorite Returns.

Wallula, June 10, 1946. —Mrs. Pat Meyer landed here yesterday on the good ship Passamatootha after spending a two year honeymoon abroad (quite a bit of kale too). She will be home as soon as possible.

Mr. I. Meyer, the newly made lesser half, will be home too.

HOWARD HUGHES MADE POET LAUREATE—BUNKVILLE

Prominent Poet and Author Receives Great Honor.

Bunkville, June 10, 1946 (By special correspondent) —Mr. Howard Hughes was made poet laureate by the Bunkus Society. It is believed that Mr. Hughes will be the best poet yet. The following is an example of his blank verse entitled "The Last Gap":

BACHELOR APARTMENTS ENTERED

Daring Exploit Takes Place Last Night.

MR. RADER WILL SPEAK AT WAREHOUSE TONIGHT

Famous Editor and Traveler to Lecture on the Trees of the Far North.

Students of Wa-Hi will be delighted to know that for only one buck ($1) they may hear Mr. Rader lecture tonight at the 10th street warehouse. He is a wonderful speaker and an extensive traveler. He went as far north once as Spokane and he will tell you something about the palm trees he saw in the Davenport Hotel. The audience will be very interested as to what is grown on the palm trees up there. Be sure to be on time for there will be a large crowd wanting to get in.

PROF. WILLIAM ZELLER MAKES A GREAT DISCOVERY

Noted Nut Gives Results of Years of Research.

Discovery to Affect Whole World.

June 10, 1946.—After several years of exhausting research Professor William Zeller proclaimed yesterday in a meeting of the Spoofonian Institute that he had discovered the startling fact that to say something a person must open his mouth. The following is an extract of the most interesting part of his lecture:

"Perambulating back into the prehistoric age of the dinosaur and the pteradactyl and when dihydrocollinedicarbonicethyle was not known we discover that the phantasmagoria of that time does not compare with those observed by a plenipotentiary of this age as he is submerged in his omniumgatherum of his cogitations."

It is believed by all the great scientists that this discovery will revolutionize talking all over the world.

YOUNG WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

The Sad End of a Tragic Love Affair.

Freewater, June 10, 1946.—The body of Ruth Kinman, commonly known as "Rastus," was found here today. She had shot herself in the attic of her home in this city. A note was found in her room saying that she did not care to live any longer since she had found out that her lover was an anarchist. (How blind is love sometimes.)

Her funeral will be held in the near future. Friends wishing to attend the services will please go to this place. This is a very tragic end of one with so many friends.

ANARCHIST ORATOR RUN OUT OF TOWN

Brentski Stirlingoff Tarred and Feathered By Angry Mob.

Dixie, June 10, 1946. (By Cider Press.)—An anarchist who had been talking on the streets for the last few days, was tarred and feathered by an angry mob last night. He said his name was Brentski Stirlingoff (strong on the off part). It was claimed also that he stole a soap box from Eppinger's Grocery to deliver his dangerous propaganda on. No one knows exactly what his bolshevik statements were but some people are quite sure that he advocated free love.

Stirlingoff was captured just as he was leaving his hotel. He carried a suspicious looking suit case which was carefully opened by the constable, Theodore Luedtke. It was found to contain two collars, a tube of tooth paste, and three buttons. After this inspection a large crowd gathered and took Brentski from the constable and tarred and feathered him and then ran him out of town.

MISS STRUTHERS SUES CITY—$10,000

Miss Selma Struthers began suit today against the city for injuries sustained when she fell through a crack in the sidewalk on South First street. She broke her neck. She says that the city should be made to keep their walks in condition. She will probably not get her money because it was the city's fault.

YOUNG COUPLE HELD UP ON WAY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbow Stopped on Fourth Street Bridge.

As they were coming home from the evening services of the Holy Rollers last night Mr. and Mrs. Turnbow were held up on the Fourth street bridge. Several people have been held up at the same place during the last week. Mr. Turnbow said that somehow he felt that this was going to happen as he was approaching the bridge, and he was not disappointed. Nothing was taken from the couple however, as they stood upon the bridge and leaned against the railing. Among those held up last week were Minah Brook and Jewel Weir. It is not known whom they were with.

TANLAC SAVES AN EYEBROW

A New Miracle

Bunkville, Wash., June 10, 1946.—Miss Helen Payne of Katchaska, Washington, writes us that she had suffered for many years from a sprained eyebrow. After trying everything she took six bottles of TANLAC and threw them in the alley. Her eyebrow became well in a few days. Before doing this she did not find time to do anything but now she has all the time she wants. No one bothers her about taking medicines to cure her eyebrow.—Adv.

Things That Drive Teachers Crazy

1. "I forgot the lesson."
2. "I didn't hear the assignment."
3. "I didn't have time to study."
4. "I ran out of paper."
5. "I forgot my pencil."
6. "Did you correct our papers?"
7. "Shall we write on both sides of the paper?"
8. "Do we have to write with ink?"
9. "I didn't hear the question."
10. "Huh!"
11. "May I be excused from giving my debate this morning?"
12. "I had my book review all written but I forgot it and left it home."
13. "What is the assignment for day after tomorrow?"
14. "Did you say our notebooks were due today?"

—Exchange.

Things We Never Hear

1. "No, I haven't my lesson. You see, I was too lazy to study it."
2. "It is impossible for me to take you to the dance for I am broke."
3. "I didn't come to class today because the weather was fine and I had a date to go for a walk."
4. "I flunked in the test because I didn't look in the book since I bought it."
5. "Pardon me for stepping on your feet; you know I am a poor dancer."
6. "I didn't go because she turned me down and I didn't know just where to go to get another one."
7. "Yes, Dad, I am studying very hard for high school work is very hard."
8. "Yes, we wrote this section and we hope you will like it."

Is Your Name "Smith" or "Brown"?

In reality the name doesn't mean everything, but when one thinks of your family name it creates a certain satisfaction.

Just so with that family of Gruens. Our high school friends recognize them immediately as being the dressy watches they have seen. We guarantee them as being just right in all particulars.

In fact—it is the ideal Graduation Gift.

Distinctive designs in wrist watches for the girls—in gold, green gold, white gold, platinum and silver.

We have a stock of beautiful watches within the price limit that every giver can afford.

Thin model watches for the boys. Really fat watches are not the thing any more, and young men are first to grasp the Gruen idea.

We have a varied line of these excellent gifts.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Dear Miss Allenarum:
I am in love with a girl and am engaged to her. But I found out that she has been engaged six times. Should I ask her to return the ring?
JOHN LEUDTKE.

Dear John:
If she has been engaged six times, she will undoubtedly save you the trouble.

———o———

Dear Miss Allenarum:
I stepped on Wilma's toe at a dance the other night and she is still mad at me. What can I do to get her back?
GERALD.

Dear Jerry:
Take up a box of candy and ask her how her tooties feel. You will then know how she feels.

———o———

Dear Miss Allenarum:
I have been corresponding with a girl out of town and now I find that she is corresponding with another fellow here. Would you advise that I order her to stop corresponding with this fellow?
BRENTS.

Dear Master Brents:
I would very strenuously request that she stop corresponding with the other fellow. "A faint heart never won a fair lady," is the old saying; so buck up.

———o———

All Freshmen:
When asked a question in any class room and you are unable to answer the question use the expressions, "Beg Pardon." "I didn't understand the question." "I didn't get to study that far, I lost my study period."

———o———

To Whom It May Concern:
If you have a joke in here on you, don't get peeved and come to room 13. We have enough trouble as it is.

———o———

Paul Reed:
In regard to some one giving you a bluffing method which is sure to help you and will be everlasting, I have to say that such a thing does not exist.

Norbert MacMartin:
Your question is easily answered. I should warn you not to mix H2SO4 and NACL.

———o———

Master Clark Robinson:
If you don't like the nickname "Shorts," see me and I will get you a new one.

———o———

Mr. Leighton Duckworth:
Your question about Birney is too personal to be answered in these columns.

———o———

Mr. John Thomas:
I would advise the reading of "Elements of Fussing" by Maynard Baldwin.

———o———

Miss Bennett:
I would suggest that you accept Bert's proposal.

———o———

Master Virgil Smith:
If you have no girl, go to the Dean's office and look through the catalogue of "non-taken." I am sure you will get results.

———o———

Miss Katherine Brown:
A few lessons in Miss Lane's "Pick and Punch Manual of Typewriting" will be of great benefit to you.

———o———

Miss Marvel McRae:
I would advise that you refrain from using your combination of vermilion paint and powder, as it is dangerous to the weak-minded fellows of our high school.

———o———

Lord Loam:
If you think so much of Lady Mary, why don't you offer to walk out with her some evening?

———o———

Selma Struthers:
For a good fat-reducer I recommend that you take a course from Ethel Spencer.
(Signed: "ANSWER LADY."

There's a reason for the Liberty's Popularity

IT IS not our policy to boast about our business virtue. We would much prefer to have this store judged by its works rather than by our words. BUT—

To make this store better and broader in its service to you has been our constant endeavor, with the result that today—It has sales force far above the average in competency and courtesy to customers, who can tell you intelligently the truth about our goods.

Our attitude towards the customer is that each transaction must be satisfactory from beginning to end—one and all treated alike, without discrimination—absolute satisfaction or money refunded. All our advertising is carefully censored by the management before being published. It tells the simple truth about the goods and, from an economic standpoint, it pays to read our advertising.

Cover up Unsightly Walls

All the cracks and discolored wall paper on old walls and ceilings can be quickly covered up with large durable panels of Beaver Board. You can do this work yourself and the best part of it is, you'll never have the job to do again. Once up Beaver Board is always there. Solid, firm, beautifully decorated walls and ceilings.

We have some very instructive literature that's yours for the asking.

Another Feature of Wa-Hi

Recently there has been established in this high school a course in Dustology. For this novel department we have, after a long and tedious search, chosen a man whom we consider to be the most efficient instructor obtainable.

Let us introduce to you Professor Melosh, D.D.—Doctor of Dustology; B.F.A.—Bachelor of Furnastry Art.

There are two students working under the instruction of the Professor, for the following degrees, respectively: C.L.M.—Chief Lawn Mower, and B.H.S.—Bachelor of Hall Sweeping.

Your Private Orchestra

Your porch is a wonderful place—room there for a jazz band, a society orchestra and a troupe of comedians—everything the young folks could want for a grand, glorious time.

The minute you acquire a New Edison, you've solved the problem of the young folks for all the summer. It's their dance orchestra, their vaudeville, their song leader. It supplies them with inexhaustible rounds of good, clean fun—at home, where the influence is wholesomest.

When the New Edison RE-CREATES an orchestra piece, you hear each instrument as distinctly as though the actual organization were before you. It's as good as a private dance orchestra.
